Snow clearing crew March 30 had reached the switchback on the Garden Wall, 24 miles from the west entrance. Then they ceased plowing with the idea that warming days would bring avalanches from the top and also see considerable melting.

Monday men and equipment are to return to the loop and resume clearing toward Logan Pass, 8½ miles ahead. On the dozer will be Dick McKenzie with Dennis Holden and Bill Dakin watchmen for avalan ches. Mike Mikkelsen will be operating a loader rented from Westroom Tractor, Kalispell, while Russ Landt will be driving the rotary.

Clark D. Crane, acting chief of park maintenance, last month in a report to Supt. Phillip R. Iversen said outlook was having Sun Road open for public travel as far as Logan Creek April 15, to the Garden Wall Loop (switchback) April 22.

Foreman Earl Armstrong and his crew working out of St. Mary are starting snow clearing operations, and outlook is roads on the east side will be open for public use by April 30 as manpower permits.

Famed avalanche off Mt. Cannon beyond Avalanche Campground saw no activity this past winter. Usually snow have 25 and more feet of snow to cut through. This spring there was less than three.
