Bus Wreck Hurts Nine

KALISPELL — Investigation continues into the Monday afternoon school bus accident which saw nine children and the bus driver injured, none seriously.

Montana Highway Patrol investigating officer said the driver, Bruce Wyman, was in the process of disciplining students on the bus and took his eyes off the road.

The bus veered to the left, Wyman overcorrected and the bus went out of control, tipped on its side, with the front portion, including the engine, catching fire.

Wyman and the students managed to get out of the bus without being burned. The Creston Volunteer Fire Department put out the fire.

An accident occurred on the Holt Stage Road east of Kalispell. The students were on their way home from rural Farmington School.

Wyman and the students were taken to Kalispell Regional Hospital for treatment of bruise abrasions and other minor injuries. Everyone except 12-year-old Kathy Cramer was released. She was held for observation.

Other students on the bus were Terry Stokes, Jan and Judy Bailey, Carol Siwell, Ronnie Sagen, Kristina Cramer, Eileen Brown and Mark Smith.

Leaking Pipe Closes Library

KALISPELL — A leaking steam pipe forced the closure of the Flathead County Library most of this week with the library having to re-open Friday.

Pipe apparently leaked sometime Sunday and when library personnel went to work Monday they discovered the evil, walls, furniture, books and periodicals in the basement soaked with water.

Books were dried with paper and spread out on the upper two floors and blown with large fans to aid drying.

Librarian Mabel Brewer said every effort was used to save as many books as possible, but some were damaged enough to be discarded.

No estimate has been made on just how many books will have to be replaced or what that would cost.

Pled Guilty

Ivorn Laughlin, 19, Kalispell pled guilty to a misdemeanor charge of possession of stolen property before Kalispell Justice of the Peace Mary Rudek.

A felony charge of burglary was originally filed against Laughlin, but was reduced to the misdemeanor. Judge Rudek imposed a $250 fine and deferred sentencing for six months on the condition the fine is paid and the stolen property returned.

Forfeits Bond

Billy Ray McKimney, 47, Columbia Falls, forfeited a $300 bond Monday when he did not appear in justice court of George Shay on charges of conducting unlawful transactions with children.

Columbia Falls police arrested McKimney Friday. He posted the $300 bond at that time.

Fined for DWI

Cheryl Lambie Tucker, 32, Columbia Falls, has been fined $250 and had her driver's license suspended the mandatory 60 days by Justice of the Peace George Shay on driving while intoxicated charges (DWI).

Columbia Falls city police issued the citation.
